19th PROGRAM - 2/6/44.

Niech bedzie etc-

15 Friends of Poland - Let's listen to what the Polish Information Center has to offer us today, after which will follow Polka music.

3 Well two old timers of Immaculate Conception parish, Mr. John Lukaszewski and Mr. Stanislaus Rydzewski, are celebrating birth days - and so in their honor we play "Seven Come Eleven" hoping they catch that big one that always got away. (Mrs. Anna Witkowski)

By the way, did you read the self styled superman's ~~last~~ latest speech? Yes, Schiklegruber's. You should have. The old fire is burning out. The embers are low. What a metamorphosed man.

Believe it or not, in all his long speech, not once did he use the pronoun "I".
O tempora, O mores.

1 ~~It must be the last act of this great farce. It must be one of his last speeches, for now he is placing the blame of his great debacle at the feet of God. Quote "That the German people today are capable of conducting this decisive life and death struggle (for their own preservation and for the preservation of the European Continent) is due TO THE GRACE OF GOD." End of quote.~~

It must be the last act of this great farce and debacle. Yes, the curtain is about to fall, for in his concluding paragraph, the once bombastic Schiklegruber, ~~is~~ now appeals to the Almighty. Quote

19th PROGRAM - 2/6/44. #2.

The bigger today's worries, the higher one day the Almighty will regard etc. End of Quote. Need I remind you that in his ~~former speech~~ earlier speeches, there was no room for the Almighty, that there was no mention of the Almighty, there was no need for the Almighty. Things must be bad, when the superman asks for assistance.

But enough of that. Let's listen to something more pleasant, another polka "KOCH* ANA CORECZKO" Darling Daughter. And this we play for our listeners in Perth Amboy N.J. especially Mr. & Mrs. John Malinowski. No, you're wrong. Not related to them. And also for our listeners in Carteret N.J. especially Mr. & Mrs. Ladislaus Litus and their daughter Barbara - Darling Daughter. Kochana Coreczko.

Perhaps you think Social Security is something new? Well, believe it or not, it may be found in the works of Andrew Modrzewski as early as the 16th century. Polish words.

And now Maryś, Maryś. Your name Mary? Then we play it for you - and for you Mrs. Mary Baniowski - and you Mrs. Pauline Raczkowski. Hope you soon get well.

✓
By the way, I wonder who it was that drew the first ~~ma~~ map of America? You guessed it. A Pole, Jan of Zakliczyn in 1512.

And now we play W POGODNY WIECZOR MAJOWY - A BEAUTIFUL MAY EVENING, for the speedy recovery of Mrs. Pauline Raczkowski.

Don't forget: you have a supper date at the White Eagle Hall, the 21st, two weeks from tomorrow. There will be plenty of Polka music too.

And so DO WIDZENIA. God Bless you and yours and BOG ZAPLAC FOR LISTENING.
