And now let's start with a Polka. Since it is called Frances, let's dedicate it to all bearing the name of Frances.

By the way, how did you enjoy the New York Philharmonic Orchestra at the Municipal Auditorium last Monday? And what did you think of the masterly way in which Dr. Artur Rodzinski conducted it?

Despite the fact, that last Sunday I announced that Dr. Rodzinski was a son of Poland, I have been asked by a number of people whether Dr. Rodzinski was Polish. Again, I repeat, yes.

As you, no doubt know, the Polish people are intensely religious and God fearing.

How deeply religious Dr. Rodzinski is, I do not know. However, I can inform you, that he was seen, taking out of his vest pocket a small crucifix, which he brought to his lips and reverently kissed, before walking out on the stage.

My authority for this, is a gentleman, who himself made a sign of the cross over his heart, before appearing on the stage. They each recognized what the other was doing - and a smile of recognition passed between them.

Superstition? Oh, no. But an eloquent gesture of dependence on God by men of distinction.

If you read REVENGE IN POLAND in Collier's, you have an idea what to expect.

And so until next Sunday, same time, God bless you and yours - and Bog zaplac for listening.
