Friends of Poland - Lest there be any misunderstanding, let me repeat that we disclaim any connection with the sponsors of the previous ten minutes.

1 Drodzy, my nic nie mamy do czynienia z tymi co zakupili pierwsze dziesiec minut naszego tak zwanego Polish Hour. Glosujcie wedlug waszego sumienia.

3 Let's wish pfc Theodore Wojciechowski a ~~happy birthday with FRYC POLKA.~~ and Mrs Frederick Janowski; a happy both day with Fryc Polka

Speaking before the House of Commons less than 4 weeks ago, the 5th of Oct. to be exact, Prime Minister Churchill paid this tribute to Warsaw. I quote in part -

The final fall of Warsaw on Oct. 3rd, 1944, after 63 days of fierce fighting against overwhelming odds under inconceivable conditions of hardship, comes at a time when Allied Armies everywhere are victorious.

1/2 In the battle of Warsaw, terrible damage has been inflicted on the noble city and its heroic population has undergone suffering and privation unsurpassed even among the miseries of this war.

It is at such a moment that I want to pay tribute to the heroic Warsaw defenders - and to express respect to all those who fell and suffered there. I am confident that the ~~day~~ days of tribulation for the Polish nation are rapidly nearing a close.

When the final Allied Victory is achieved, the Epic of Warsaw will not be forgotten. It will remain a deathless memory for Poland and for the friends of Freedom all over the world. End of quote.

And now a ~~polka~~ KWIATEK POLKA *
FLOWER POLKA, a musical bouquet for Mr. Andrew Demski on his 72 birthday.

Raczkiawicz

The 3rd of this month, the President of Poland, (Ladislaus Raczkowski) issued this message to Poland. I quote only part of it.

The thing which we expected for several days but to which it is difficult to reconcile ourselves, has happened - Warsaw heroic Warsaw, fell on the 63rd day of a terrible unequal struggle waged against crushing superior enemy forces. She fell at the moment when the Allies have reached a decisive superiority over the foe and when the roar of gunfire on all the battlefields of Europe signals the approaching defeat of Germany.

Nothing can modify the tragedy of the fact. Nothing too will change the conviction that a cruel and completely undeserved blow has fallen on us after so many years of bloody sufferings and efforts and in spite of the miracle of gallantry and the miracle of unity displayed
by the whole nation.

In the glare of the ruins of the heroic city, everyone who wishes must perceive this great truth: that there is no price we would not be ready to pay for freedom and independence;
that there is no toil which we would not be prepared to ~~take~~ undertake for that cause and there is no might which would deter us from our purpose.

Warsaw has fallen but the relentless fight of the Polish nation goes on. It will continue until the moment when the aims we set ourselves on Sept. 1st, 1939, and which have been accepted by the whole civilized world, will be fully attained. The painful fall of Warsaw is at the same time the best proof of these highest moral values of a nation that make history. End of quote.

And now a belated birthday greetings for one of our regular listeners in Tivoli NY, Mrs. Alexandra Lewandowski, the mother of Mrs. Camilia Ann Baldyga of Poughkeepsie, also a steady patron of WKNY's Polish Hour.

For you Mrs. Alexandra Lewandowski, we play ALEXANDRA POLKA.

The Prime Minister of Poland, Stanislaus M. Mikolajczyk, said:

The defense of Warsaw will remain forever a testimony to the invincible moral strength of the Polish nation and its unyielding will to independent life. End of quote.

Did you know that the Polish underground army operated even in France - and was very active in destroying German Robot Bomb bases?

And now ZOSIA or SOPHIE POLKA for the new arrival in the family of just St & Mrs. Charles Fies cards - I had makes Mr. Adalbert Mularski - a great year defaces a second time.

Did you know that on Sept. 1st, of this year, five years after the German attack on Poland and two years after the Germans tore down the CHOPIN monument in Warsaw, a statue of Frederic Chopin by August Zamoyski was unveiled in Rio de Janeiro's beautiful Tiburcio Square?

The statue was presented to the people of Brazil by the Poles in that country as an expression of gratitude for Brazilian hospitality toward Polish refugees.

Its sculptor, August Zamoyski, is one of Europe's most foremost artists.

Dr. Thaddeus Skowronski, Polish Minister to Brazil, said on that occasion. I quote in part.

^{Frederic}
The figure of Chopin, a true son of Poland, is one of the greatest geniuses of Western culture -----

Our enemies who wished to destroy Polish culture, well know that Chopin is the expression of the Polish nation's indomitable will and strenght. That is why the Germans forbade his works to be played in Poland, and having destroyed his monument in Warsaw, sent the ~~material~~ metal as a birthday gift to Hitler to be used as srap for canon manufacture.

In Brazil, Chopin is the most adored and best known of the sons of Poland. Admiration for Chopin has always been so great among the Brazilians etc etc.

Today marks the 22nd anniversary of the opening of the White Eagle Hall of the Sacred Heart of Jezus and Mary Society.

If you care to take part, the committee invites you to a Chicken ~~Dinner~~ Supper which will be served until 9pm. and to an evening of dancing.

In commemoration of the 22nd anniversary of the opening of the White Eagle Hall, we play TWO POLISH FOLK SONGS.

Don't forget suffering, starving and freezing Poland is waiting for your bundle of clothes, especially baby apparel.

And so DO WIDZENIA until next Sunday at 5. God bless you and yours. And BÓG ZAPLAC FOR listening.
