What is Divine Mercy Sunday?

Pope John Paul II declared Sr. Faustina Kowalska a saint of the Church on April 30, 2000, and in a decree dated May 23, 2000, the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments stated that "throughout the world the Second Sunday of Easter will receive the name Divine Mercy Sunday, a perennial invitation to the Christian world to face, with confidence in divine benevolence, the difficulties and trials that [we] will experience in the years to come."

Saint Faustina was born in 1905 and spent most of her life in Poland, in the Congregation of the Virgin Mary of Mercy. She experienced an extraordinary union with God. She received exceptional graces, revelations, visions, hidden stigmata, the ability to read souls, and the gift of prophecy.

One of the images that was revealed to Faustina was that of the merciful Jesus, touching his Sacred Heart, from which beams of red and white light came forth. This image and her devotion to the divine mercies gathered thousands of supporters throughout the world. We still see the traditional image of the Sacred Heart of Jesus in many of our churches today. In some churches, we might see the newer image, inspired by the saint. Saint Faustina Kowalska died in 1938 at the age of thirty-three, leaving an impressive mystical legacy. She is a disciple of God's divine mercy for the twenty-first century. ●

EASTER MESSAGE FROM FATHER MIREK

Christ is risen! Our response is, "He is truly risen!". We Catholic Christians have 50 days of rejoicing. We rejoice in Jesus Christ's victory over slavery and death. The empty grave is now a sign of hope. The baptized rejoice knowing that by being initiated into Christ's death and resurrection, through the saving waters of baptism, we have everlasting life. We wish each other a joyful greeting on Easter Sunday, but for Catholics, Easter is so much more than a single celebration. Easter is so important that we cannot celebrate it in one day. To fully celebrate the Easter Season, it takes fifty days through the Pentecost (Greek word for 50), and each of these 50 days is Easter. That is why the Church speaks of the Sundays of Easter, rather than as one "great Sunday". These are the days to sing "Alleluia! Christ is Risen!! We all know very well at the end, the victory is Jesus Christ, who rose from the dead.

I would like to thank all my parishioners of Immaculate Conception, St. Catherine Laboure and St. Colman who worked so diligently performing so many tasks on so many different levels to make our Holy Week so exceptional. Our churches are so beautifully prepared and decorated for the Easter season by so many who are so very dedicated and invested in our Holy Week. On behalf of myself, Father John, Father Yaya, Monsignor Brennan, Father Kearney and the Parish Council of each parish, we wish you a blessed and Holy Easter. As we celebrate the Resurrection today, please let us all rejoice. Alleluia! Christ is Risen!
