Niech bedzie pochwalony Jezus Chr.
Friends of Poland - First let's listen to the program prepared for us by the Polish Information Center and then will follow the Polish music you enjoy so much.

Before we play our first Polka,
let me read to you a few head lines I culled from the N.Y. Times two weeks ago, but had no time to read to you last Sunday.

Quote: Massacre of Jews in Hungary scored. Special services of protest held by 2000 in Bronx and Manhattan Church.

Allies to untomb 320 slain Italians.
Will begin study of German crimes by recovering bodies sealed in a cave.

Berlin threatens to destroy Europe.
Maelstrom of destruction due if Russian flood spills on Holy German land. End of quote.

OK And now TULAK POLKA.

Oh, yes the 8th I.C. Picnic of last Sunday - well, it was the best of the eight, both socially and financially, despite the shower and cool weather. Thanks for coming.
The I.C. Parish netted 819.89. That's a lot of money, yes, but with this money, we are to purchase a new boiler for the I.C. School which will cost 1.195 dollars. So you see, we still need about 400 dollars more. Perhaps you would like to contribute something. If so, do so, by all means. Address your letter to me, Father Malinowski, at this station or the I.C. Church Kingston N.Y. In the name of the I.C. School children, who will be warm and comfortable because of your contribution, may I say thanks and BOG ZAPLAC, which means, may

And now a Polka - ~~CHERRY~~ PICKERS!
- for the winner of the 25 dollar War Bond -
Mr. Ladislaus Jakubowski of Cementen N.Y.

We wish to thank all those who have thus far sent us wearing apparel for the poor unfortunate, destitute yet heroic people of Poland.

Thus far, the committee, headed by the very active Mrs. Michalina Raczkowski, has shipped 325lbs to the Polish War Relief Warehouse in N.Y. City.

Here is an opportunity for all of us Americans to help repay in a modest way, the debt we Americans owe to the country that gave us Kosciuszko and Bulaski.

You may send your package to the I.C. School, Delaware Ave - or contact or notify me - and they will be picked up.

And now for all those who thus far have sent us wearing apparel for Poland, we play BERNICE POLKA. Good but muffled record

Now in sacred memory of a great international POLE, Ignace Jan Paderewski, who brought many hours of delightful entertainment to music lovers the world over, we play an oberek - SWING ON THE TURN.

Less than a month ago, June 29th to be exact, was the 3rd anniversary of his passing for this great Polish pianist, Paderewski, is not dead. He lives and will live on, in the echoing strains of the piano, for every one that had the good fortune to hear him.
