Friends of Poland - Let's listen to what the Polish Information Center has to offer to-day - after which will follow Polka music.

And now a Polka Zap Cap for Mrs. Joseph Tomczyk who a few days ago celebrated her - we'll skip the year - birthday. (president of the I. C. Holy Rosary Society).

Well, Russia is determined to have her own way in Poland. The first test of the Atlantic Charter is at hand. Or is ~~it~~ it unpatriotic to mention the Atlantic Charter? The world awaits with bated breath. The smaller nations await. The fate of Poland is the clue to what the smaller nations may expect. They rise or fall with Poland.

Christians in particular - the world over - are interested in the fate of Poland, the bulwark of Christianity. Why, Christians? Don't you really know? Why, the faith of several millions is at stake. If Russia has her way, the Christian Church loses, loses several million adherents. If Poland wins the Christians of the world win.

Again, the solemn word, the solemn pledge, the honor of Uncle Sam is at stake, for he in the person of our president Franklin Delano Roosevelt, signed the Atlantic Charter, assuring smaller nations of their territorial integrity.

But to the followers of Christ, the faith of these Poles is at stake - and that is what to us is the paramount importance. X If the Poles, always a God-fearing and deeply religious and devout people, become sovietized, what happens
