Niech bedzie etc -

Friends of Poland - Well, next Sunday will mark the anniversary of the Polish Hour, so let's begin with a Polka in anticipation of our satisfaction. CZTERY KONIE IGNACE MIAL - Ignace had four horses.

If you are interested in Poland, then you are interested in Warsaw. Let me read to you the battle song of Warsaw, broadcast, on Aug. 24th of this year. QUOTE

Tho' we fight among graves, still our spirits are high.

Fighting Warsaw fights on, none here weeps in despair.

We straddle the Hun and with bare hands we try

To strangle the beast as he creeps to his lair.

While you still complain of the blood shed and flame

Devouring Warsaw as day succeeds day,

We here with our bare breasts the enemy stay

And smile at your praise and suggestions of fame.

But why must your song of lamenting still sound

When here the great day, long awaited has come,

And everyone, men, women, children are found

Fighting and bleeding for Poland, for home.

Let the funeral dirges no longer be heard.

For here beats the great heart of Poland - contact.

Warsaw speaks. Warsaw thunders. And this is her word:

Give us not praise. Give us arms.
Let us act. *****

And now for our listeners in Yonkers - yes Yonkers N.Y., we play DESZCZ PADA, ZMOCZY MNIE * MAZUR-POLKA. Evening, 11/24/44

Perhaps you missed the heart rending appeal from the women of Warsaw to Pope Pius XII - and so here it is. QUOTE

Holy Father - We Polish women fighting in Warsaw are inspired by deep patriotism and devotion to our country.

While we have defended our fortress for three weeks, we lack food and medical supplies. Warsaw lies in ruins. The Germans are murdering the wounded in hospitals. They drive women and children before them, screening their ~~tank~~ tanks.

There is no exaggeration in the reports of children fighting and destroying German tanks with bottles of gasoline. We mothers see our sons dying for liberty and their country. Our husbands, sons and brothers are not regarded as combatants.

Holy Father, no one helps us. The Russian armies, that have been standing for three weeks at the gates of Warsaw, do not move a step forward. The help that has come from Britain is insufficient. The world ignores our fight. Only God is with us.

Holy Father - Vicar of Christ - if you can hear us, bless us, Polish women fighting for the Church and liberty. END OF QUOTE.

And now to relieve the tension, let's listen to the SONG OF THE POLISH UNDER-GROUND.

Pope Pius XII addressing soldiers of the Polish Second Corps in Italy during an audience at the Vatican on July 28th, 1944, said:

QUOTE - Although your national soil is all red with the blood which bathes it, your rights are so sure that we have a firm hope that all nations will take cognizance of THEIR DEBT TO POLAND, the theatre and too often the plaything of their conflicts, and that whoever retains a spark of truly human Christian sentiment in his heart, will seek to revindicate for her the entire place which is her due, according to principles of justice and true peace.
End of quote.

And now perhaps you'd like to hear
our theme song in its entirety - NIEMA JAK KRAKOWIAK - and this we will play for the new arrival in the family of Mr. & Mrs., Jacob Weiss - Marilyn Anne. Mrs. Jacob Weiss is the former ~~Harriet~~ Hedwig Wojdan, better known as Harriet Wojdan.

The Polish people are deeply religibus...
We've mentioned this before. Almighty God holds first place in the life of both Poles and Poland.
Listen to the first stanza of the Polish National Hymn. QUOTE -

O Lord, Thou hast to Poland lent Thy might,
And with a Father's strong, protecting hand
Hast given fame and all its glory
bright,
And through long ages saved our father land.

We chant at Thy altars our humble strain,

O Lord, make the land of our love free again.

And now POBÓR NA DZIEWCZYNY POLKA -

Lest we forget, the I.C. Church is still receiving and collecting wearing apparel for Poland. Have you sent your bundle yet? If you have no clothes and shoes to give, then ~~please send something~~ you may send a contribution. Please send something or both. Some poor souls in Poland will eternally bless and pray for you and yours.

Send something in memory of the one you love who is in the armed forces, that he may return quickly and safely.

Or let it be a thanksgiving offering for having been spared from the fate of the unfortunate Polish people and Poland.

We have much to be thankful for in this our blessed land and here is an opportunity to show your appreciation and gratitude to Almighty God.

Simply address it to Father Malinowski or even the I.C. Church, Kingston N.Y. will do.

And now for all those who have sent something for devastated and bleeding Poland, we play OBEREK OD TARNOWA.
