24th PROGRAM - 3/12/44. #1.

Niech bedzie etc -

Friends of Poland - Let's listen to what the Polish Information Center has to offer us today. Then will follow the Polish music you so much enjoy.

And now let's begin with dignity and so a waltz, for all our Jersey City listeners, but especially for a former Kingston lady, Mrs. Tillie Klonowski Campbell. ZA EBRU FALA - ON THE WAVES OF EBRO.

He newly weds Mr. Mrs. John New Baltimore McGowan

*Formerly
"member"
"Queen of the"*

The lady is the former Mary Alice Slegnicki Gull, a member J.S.C.

Rupert Hughes, author and historian, recently paid a glowing tribute to Poland. You will find it in the March 7th issue of the weekly called THE POLISH REVIEW.

Among other things, this historian said: quote - Among the first settlers in Virginia, were Polish artisans, who arrived there years before the Pilgrims left England in the Mayflower. End of quote.

Poles may not have arrived on the Mayflower, but that is due to the fact that Polish people were already here, before the Mayflower arrived.

And yet believe it or not, some self-styled Americans, have the audacity and ignorance to call a man a foreigner, simply because his name ends in ski.

I had a personal experience with a woman who, on hearing my name - Malinowski, said with astonishment: Oh, you're a foreigner.

Incidentally, to make a long story short, I asked her if she were born here, to which she replied, no, but hurriedly added: I've been in this country over 25 years.

I presume then, I interjected, you are a citizen. Hedgingly, she said: I have my first papers. Lady, I responded: you've been in this country 25 years and you are not a citizen yet - still a foreigner. Shame on you.

I wont mention her nationality, for it would be most embarrassing, -to some. And furthermore, we are not on the air to embarrass anyone; but on the contrary, to make friends and to enlighten people about Poland and about the debt we Americans owe to Poland and her many gallant and illustrious sons and daughters.

And now for the speedy recovery of Mrs. Frances Plotczyk, we play POLKA PLOCKA.

Slime, law, Gill -

Did you know that even far off Asia is indebted to a Pole by the name of Nicholas Przewalski, the explorer of Turkestan.

By the way, Benedict Dyboski is an eminent authority on Asia.

35
And now for Lt. John W. Clarke, the son of Dr. and Mrs. Harold Clarke, who is confined to a hospital, we play KRAKOWIAK POLKA -

Did you know that the first man to give an accurate description of Alaska, was Polish - Dennis Zarembo - who, by the way, discovered a group of islands on the Bearing Sea and along ~~the~~ ^{Parish} the Alaskan coast?

3
And now for the historian of St. Mary's Mr. Joseph F. Sullivan of the Freeman, who incidentally has done much to inform others of the Polish Hour, we play LAUGHING POLKA.
