

Rectory of
Immaculate Conception Church
467 Delaware Avenue
Kingston, N. Y.

39th PROGRAM - ~~June~~ 2, 1944 #1.

Niech bedzie etc -

15- Friends of Poland - First let's listen to the program supplied us by the Polish Information Center and then will follow the Polka music you enjoy so much.

3 Lest Walter Fabiszak who is convalescing, think that we have forgotten about him, we will play the first number for his speedy recovery. Walter, JULIDA POLKA for you.

The first bit of news today is blood curdling. It was carried by the N.Y. Times a few days ago. Quote: German atrocity reported by Pole. DeRapp says here that most of 300,000 children died from Blood-Bank transfers.

1 300,000 Polish children, both Jews and non-Jews have been used to supply the blood bank for the German army, and most of them have died as a result of the large amount of blood taken from them, Dr. Stefan de Ropp, director of the Polish Office for Research and Planning, asserted yesterday. End of quote.

These fiends are determined in their diabolical scheme to destroy the Polish race. To us it seems that fear of the Poles, is driving these Nazis to such barbaric atrocities

And now <sup>a polka</sup> for the speedy recovery of the two daughters of John Rendak, Frances and Mary. We are glad to hear <sup>the</sup> the father, John Rendak, has recovered. So too have his ~~two~~ two sons. For the Rendak family we play -
POLKA MARIANNA. Maryann

3
Apropos of the Nazi atrocities - according to Life Magazine - last issue - barbarism must be in the blood of these self-

Rectory of
Immaculate Conception Church
467 Delaware Avenue
Kingston, N. H.

39th PROGRAM - 7/2/44 - #2.

22
styled supermen, for their atrocities are directed against anyone and every one who fails to cooperate with them in their nefarious schemes.

In the July 3rd issue of Life Magazine we read: QUOTE: Torture murals from Dante decorate Gestapo's living quarters.

Gestapo in Rome.

Germans leave proofs of their ferocity behind.

3
Every day the muffled sound of heart chilling screams filled the Roman street seen below. But the fearful residents of the street had to keep their shutters drawn. They had to ignore the cars that unloaded pitiful figures at No. 145 Via Tasso and took away more pitiful ones. The 50 Germans who worked in the house were never seen. This was the Gestapo Headquarters in Rome, the place of final congealing terror for the helpless.

Angelo Ioppi (one of the Gestapo victims) now moves in jerks and spasms.

Another John Spurney was tied into a knot in a chair and pounded with a leather club.

Worst of all atrocities was massacre of hostages.

Mind you, I am still quoting from Life Magazine.

Approach to grotto shows how Germans blocked entrance and Italians reopened it to find their dead.

Inside cave, the victims' kinfolk bring flowers to lay on the unmarked graves of the 500 dead men. End of quote.

3
But enough of that. Let's have another polka to help us forget that these men can be such beasts. And this one for Mrs. Wempe of Eddyville who sent a truck load of wearing apparel for Poland, (to the Immaculate Conception school). VICTORY POLKA.

Rectory of
Immaculate Conception Church
467 Delaware Avenue
Kingston, N. Y.

39th PROGRAM - 7/2/44 - # 3.

Since I have but a minute left, here are some more extracts from the N.Y. TIMES about the atrocities of our diabolical enemies. Quote

Dr. Millikan, a Nobel Prize winner, hits Nazi code. Says German brutality is creature of training.

Robot Bombs kill babies in nursery. Germany's blindly aimed robot bombs droned across England all day today, taking a number of lives, including those of babies in a rural nursery home. End of quote.

By the way, did you read about Lt. Col. Francis E. Gabreski who shot down a Messerschmitt 109 to bring his total score of Axis aircraft destroyed to 27.

Colonel Gabreski is now tied with Major Johnson for high-scoring aerial combat honors among fighter pilots of the 8th air force.

Don't forget you have a date the 16th of July at the I.C. Annual Parish Picnic.

And so DO WIDZENIA until next Sunday at 5. God bless you and yours. And BOG ZA* PLAC for listening.