Dear Padre

April 17, 2022

The Church says unless you're baptized, you will not enter heaven. So how was the unbaptized good thief able to enter paradise?

Jesus was crucified with two thieves. One taunted Jesus, "Are you not the Messiah? Save yourself and us." The other, rebuking him, said Jesus had done nothing criminal adding, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." Jesus replied to him, saying, "Today you will be with me in Paradise" (Luke 23:39-40, 42-43).

When the good thief rebuked the other, how did he know Jesus had done nothing wrong or that Jesus was going to his kingdom when he died? Scripture provides no background on the good thief to suggest he was baptized, but he's evidently familiar with Jesus' reputation before the crucifixion.

Regardless, even to his dying breath, Jesus desired for all a conversion experience with our compassionate God. God desires salvation for everyone. However, "God has bound salvation to the sacrament of baptism, but he himself is not bound by his sacraments" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1257). So while the typical way of salvation is through baptism, our merciful God can also give baptismal grace without the sacrament being conferred! For example, when unbaptized infants die, we have "hope that God will save [them] when we have not been able to do for them what we would have wished to do, namely, to baptize them" (2007 Vatican Commission, "The Hope of Salvation for Infants Who Die Without Being Baptized," 103).

WALKING WITH MOMS IN NEED

On the evening after His Resurrection, Jesus walked alongside his disciples in their doubts & struggles on the road to Emmaus. Inspired by His example, many Christians provide services that accompany women in need through the rocky road of a crisis pregnancy and the struggles of being a single mother. Unfortunately, many women who find themselves in this situation are unaware of the supports available to them, much like the disciples who failed to recognize the risen Christ. ## EASTER MESSAGE FROM FATHER MIREK

We have all experienced an unprecedented journey in our present time. Although we have faced difficult times, both personally and professionally, our hope is out of the darkness, our strength has grown through prayer, stronger family ties and deeper spiritual growth. As the believers, we are expecting something bigger after this time of turmoil when our love, our faith and our hope will be increased and the good can be continued forth and multiplied.

We know very well at the end, the victory is Jesus Christ, who rose from the dead.

I would like to thank all my parishioners of Immaculate Conception who have been so supportive of the church and myself during this time. On behalf of myself, Father John, Father Yaya and the Parish Council, we wish you a blessed and Holy Easter. As we celebrate the Resurrection today, please let us all rejoice,

Alleluia! Christ is Risen!
