*I hope that you will pardon us
if we say that X*

25th PROGRAM - 3/19/44.
1.

Niech bedzie etc.

Friends of Poland - We take pride in announcing that this is our 25th Sunday on the air.

X We honestly feel that we have done something to make Poland better known and appreciated.

We hope that the few seeds of information, we left with you each Sunday, will bear fruit.

We hope that the Polish Hour pithy sparks of information have ~~dissipated~~ dissipated at least some of our ignorance about Poland.

We hope that by now, we all realize - at least to some extent - that our glorious country is greater and better and richer because of Poland, because of Poland's many illustrious sons and daughters who left their imprint on our American soil.

In conclusion, we hope we have made many friends, for he is rich, who has many friends.

And now Let's listen to the Polish Information Center, after which will follow the Polka music you so much enjoy.

And now for the newlyweds, Mr. & Mrs. John McGowan - the bride by the way, is the former Mary Alice Slizewski Cole, a member of Immaculate Conception. Taniec Na Zareczynach - THE BETROTHAL DANCE.

Did you know that the Poles were pioneers of printing in foreign countries.

In no field of endeavor, did the contribution of Polish culture play a greater part, than in the art of printing.

In brief, Spain, England, Hungary, Southern Slovenia, Russia and Turkey are all indebted to the Poles for the art of Printing.

3. And now for the speedy recovery of Julius Cybulski and Anna Lukaszewski, we play
ANNA POLKA. Mrs. Ladislaus Waleczak.

Yes, many countries are indebted to Poland for the art of printing. Spain to Stanislaus of Seville, who, at the invitation of Ferdinand and Isabella, settled in Spain in 1491 and opened his printing shop in Seville.

He soon became one of the greatest artisans of the printing craft in Spain.

1 The greatest work of Stanislaus of Seville was the printing of VITA DEL CRISTO
"The Life of Christ", the greatest masterpiece of printing in Spain. Mrs. Josephine Kaczor, Mrs. Adam Argule

Mrs. Daniel M. Styles - and now birthday greetings to Mr. Jan Szulc - only 89 years young - and his daughter Mrs. Agnes Gill and S/Sgt Donald Tucker, now a prisoner of war in Germany. ^{Pl. Jos. Melnik.} ^{wife}

Incidentally, I hope the Germans don't discover that S/Sgt. Donald Tucker has Kosciuszko-Pulaski blood in his veins, for his mother is a Zakrzewski.

3 For ^{all of} you ~~three~~ on your birthday, we play a MAZURKA - WESOLY TANIEC - A MERRY DANCE.

In Italy another Pole, John Adam, became famous as a printer. From Italy he set sail for England where he was known as John Lettou and under that name printed numerous important writings.
