Dear Padre

December 21, 2025

I went to confession, and then, months later, my priest was removed for alcoholism and theft. Is my confession still worthy?

Your confession is not dependent on the worthiness or the unworthiness of the priest. Your confession is made to Jesus; the priest is a witness who pronounces the words of absolution that Jesus intended in the sacrament. "From the moment that a sacrament is celebrated in accordance with the intention of the Church, the power of Christ and his Spirit acts in and through it, independently of the personal holiness of the minister" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1128).

The question of the efficacy of the sacrament and the unworthiness of the minister who performs the sacrament in the name of the Church is not new. During the time of persecution, in the early centuries of the Church, some people, including priests and bishops, avoided martyrdom by offering the required oblation to Caesar. Later, they repented and returned to the Christian community, a community that included the surviving family and friends of the men and women who were martyred. The question was asked, and with some animated energy, "How could these ministers who sinned to save their own lives now represent the Church?" The answer, arrived at with patience and discernment, is that the minister is only the representative of the sacrament, not the source of the sacrament. Jesus is faithful, even when his ministers have been unfaithful. ●

CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEAR'S GREETING AND PRAYERS

As we gather this Advent and enter the Holy season of Christmas, my heart overflows with joy and gratitude for each one of you, the faithful members of our parish family. This sacred time invites us to reflect deeply on the miraculous gift of our Savior, Jesus Christ – God made flesh, who chose to dwell among us in humility and love.

In the quiet of the manger, we discover the profound message of Christmas: that God's love knows no bounds. Amidst the twinkling lights and joyous carols, may we remember that Christ is the true light who dispels all darkness and brings hope to the world. His birth is a testament to God's unending mercy, peace and promise for all humanity.

This year, we rejoice together, let us also reach out to those in need – the lonely, the sick, the poor, and the forgotten. Let our actions reflect the compassion of Christ, not only during these festive days, but throughout the coming year. I encourage you to open your hearts and homes, to share generously, and to let Christ's peace reign in all your relationships.

My gratitude and thanks to so many who make Christmas special; those who decorated our churches so beautifully and assembled the Crib and trees. I thank the Choir, Organist, Musicians, Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, Ushers, Altar Servers. Special thanks to the children from our CCD program who participate in the Vigil of Christmas and Midnight Mass Procession and our CCD Coordinator. Also, thank you to the Church Guild for the flower arrangements, the Holy Rosary Society and to the Divine Mercy Chapel Adorers who are so faithful. A very special thanks to Fr. Louis Yaya, who continues to offer his on-going pastoral support to me. Also, to Fr. John Borzuchowski who in the past has been here to support and help. We wish him blessings and good health for the new year. Lastly, thank you to all my dedicated parishioners, friends and visitors who make Christmas here so warm and special. Without your prayers, your kind words and support, none of this would be possible. May this Christmas season fill your homes with love, your hearts with faith, and our lives with hope. Let us welcome Jesus with open arms and renewed spirits, trusting in His guidance for the new year ahead.

Bless you all during this season of Christmas and throughout the New Year, Fr. Mirek
