Our church is accessible to those who are physically challenged

Dear Padre

October 25, 2026

I occasionally need to be reminded why I should remain Catholic. Can you help?

Whether our faith was inherited at birth or adopted later, it's healthy to periodically reexamine our beliefs and practices with the intent to grow closer to God. Saint Paul uses the metaphor of moving beyond milk to solid food to explain our maturing faith. (See Hebrews 5:12-14). Questions or doubts are not necessarily signs of crisis or disloyalty to God or the Church. Indeed, it's often when we challenge pat answers that God moves us to a deeper meaning and stronger relationship—that is, if we're steadfast on the path to holiness. People remain Catholic for numerous reasons, including:

- the Church's belief in God's goodness to us through the sacraments;
- a 2,000-year tradition of living the gospel in a universal, multicultural community of faith;
- a proven track record as an agent for personal and spiritual growth and social transformation.

When Church members' behavior is contrary to Christ's mission, and our confidence to remain is tested, it's good to recall that the Church is divinely fortified and humanly composed. People remain Catholic because the Church exists to bring us into full communion with God, through Christ, by working toward the fullness of the kingdom. "The Church 'is the visible plan of God's love for humanity,' because God desires 'that the whole human race may become one people of God, form one body of Christ, and be built into one temple of the Holy Spirit'" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 776). ●

RESPECT LIFE MONTH

Each October the Church in the United States celebrates Respect Life Month, and today, the first Sunday of October is observed as Respect Life Sunday. As Catholics, we are called to cherish, defend, and protect those who are most vulnerable, from the beginning of life to its end, and at every point in between. During the month of October, the Church asks us to reflect more deeply the dignity of every human life.

30th ANNIVERSARY OF THE DIVINE MERCY PERPETUAL ADORATION CHAPEL

This Sunday we celebrate the 30th anniversary of our Chapel at the 10:30 AM Mass. We thank all our adorers, living and deceased, who for the past 30 years have spent time with Jesus and without them, we could not maintain the success of the Chapel.

ALL SOULS' – MONTH OF NOVEMBER

Names of our loved ones, which are listed on All Souls' envelopes, will be remembered during the month of November. The month of November is traditionally a time for visiting graves of loved ones as in the anniversary of death. To show the love of our deceased is the gift of prayer and gain the plenary indulgence of them. During this time, we have an opportunity to apply our indulgence to all the Souls in Purgatory.

PENNY SOCIAL
