Friends of Poland - First let's listen to the program prepared for us by the POLISH INFORMATION CENTER and then we will play your polkas

3
Birthday greetings to Lt. Stanislaus Rydzewski who has been reported missing in action and for whom we hopefully play -
BABUNIA POLKA * DEAR GRANNY POLKA.

Perhaps the order of the day on May 23rd as issued by Gen. Ladislaus Anders, Commander of the Polish 2nd Corps in Italy, will interest you. Quote: Soldiers, The battle which we fought with the help of God and which has ended victoriously with the capture of Monte Cassino and the Monastery, is our first revenge against the Germans.

1 1/2
On the ruins of the fortress of Monte Cassino proudly waves the flag of Poland - over that fortress which the Germans called unconquerable. I have ordered the British flag to be flown beside our flag as a sign of the heroic effort of the whole 8th Army.

The Polish Corps' battle for Monte Cassino will go down in history.

The whole Polish nation is proud of you, soldiers. All Polish hearts, the whole world over, are beating today with joy, every Pole paying homage to our heroes, whose souls stand today before the Highest Judge and whose mortal remains will rest forever in the Polish Cemetery near the Cassino Monastery.

22/1/2
And now a Polka for Mr. & Mrs. Joseph Tomczyk, who today celebrate their 30th wedding anniversary. They are the proud parents of Lt. Edward Tomczyk. Incidentally, Mrs. Joseph Tomczyk is one of the most active members of the I.C. Parish. We play for them MATKA ZOLNIEZA * THE MOTHER OF A SOLDIER.

38th PROGRAM - 6/25/44 - # 2.

1/2
Raymond Gram Swing, broadcasting over the Blue Network at 10 p.m. on May 18th, said apropos of the capture of Monte Cassino and the Monastery by the Polish troops - quote -: The Polish troops - are among the most valiant the war has produced. No tougher assignment was given in the Italian offensive. End of quote.

General Alexander congratulating General Ladislaus Anders, Commander of the 2nd Polish Army Corps, said: This should be a proud day for Poland and I salute the Polish flag which flies so proudly from the Monastery fortress. End of quote.

3
And now for the newlyweds, Sgt and Mrs. Frank Argulewicz. ~~We play VERONICA POLKA. God bless you and your wife, Frank.~~ ✓ for Mrs. & Mr. Charles Argulewicz in their 36th wedding anniversary.

✓
Did you hear the address of Winston Churchill to the House of Commons, May 24th? Quote: Nothing can surpass the bravery of our Polish Allies in Italy, on the sea and in the air and in the heroic ~~underground~~ resistance of the underground movement to the Germans. End of quote.

1
All of these Polish soldiers, living and dead, have left someone behind - father, mother, sister, wife and children. They may now be scattered to the four corners of the globe. However, some day in the near future, after this nightmare is over, they will all trek back to their beloved Poland. And what will they find? Rubble and ruin. Nothing to eat and nothing to wear.

27
Perhaps you have some clothes or shoes you no longer need. If you can spare them, please bring or send them to me. The I.C. Committee of Wearing Apparel for Poland, will see to it that they families of these Polish Heroes of Cassino, get them. I thank you in their names.
