Dear Padre

September 20, 2026

Adam and Eve had two sons and maybe others not mentioned in the Bible. How were others born without having committed incest?

This is a perfectly valid question, and one that I think many people have probably asked themselves at one time or another. Unfortunately, it is the wrong question, because it does not reflect the true meaning of the story.

The story about Adam and Eve is not a literal story or, in other words, a story that would be reported by CNN or FOX News. It is a teaching story, intended to encourage belief in the creative power of God at work in his creation. It is not, nor has it ever been, a literal step-by-step tutorial of the early days of the human race.

The bible includes different literary forms: narrative or history, poetry and songs, parables, letters, genealogies, and more. Knowing what form is being used, the purpose of the passage, who is writing or talking, and the intended audience is the work of Scripture scholars. The story of creation is not intended to be literal; it is inspirational. ●

Thank you for your patience and generosity.

SECOND COLLECTION

Next weekend the second collection will be taken for the annual St. Joseph's Seminary Appeal. From our Archbishop The Most Reverend Ronald A. Hicks – "Our seminarians are the future shepherds of our flock and will be the spiritual guides and leaders in our wider communities. We must be sure that they are as well prepared as possible to serve the Church in New York. And for over a century, Dunwoodie has been that place of formation. Thousands of holy, dedicated, and faithful priests have been ordained over these years. Our seminary is nationally renowned, held in the highest regard by bishops from around the country. Each year, dozens of other dioceses and religious orders send their candidates to our priestly formation program." Thank you for your generosity for our future priests & religious.

DIVINE MERCY CHAPEL

The Divine Mercy Perpetual Adoration Chapel of Ulster County is open 24/7 and welcomes new adorers to help worship and adore Jesus. Please commit to a weekly hour and become a registered adorer to receive a key fob. For more information visit immaculateconceptionkingston.com and click on the Adoration Chapel link.

LAND OF PEACE

This weekend, we welcome the Land of Peace mission, a non-profit organization that will be with us speaking about the Christian situation in the Holy Land and selling Crucifixes, religious artwork, and rosaries. All are made of olive wood which is native to Israel and Bethlehem. Since tourism has greatly depleted, Christian families in the Holy Land, who depend on tourists, have been greatly affected. The goal of this mission is to help the poor and needy families in Bethlehem and Jerusalem. Thank you. You can visit their website at www.landofpeace.org
