Dear Padre

July 20, 2025

"Lead us not into temptation..." God does not lead us into temptation, so what is this saying?"

You are of the same mind as the pope! In 2019, Pope Francis approved changing the Lord's Prayer, that is, changing the phrase "lead us not into temptation" to "do not let us fall into temptation." Pope Francis said that the original appeared to suggest that God caused the temptation. However, most Scripture scholars agree that "lead us not into temptation" is the best translation from the Greek. It's a subjunctive verb. It's used in the second person, addressed directly to God. And it really does say "do not lead us into temptation."

What did the pope hope to accomplish? Those who are most familiar with the pope say that what he was trying to clarify was not anchored in the intricacies of translation but rather anchored in pastoral life. He wanted to focus the attention of God's people on their action, "falling into temptation," and not on a misunderstanding of what Jesus was teaching. It was a point of focus and clarification to help us in our spiritual journey and our understanding of our relationship with God. Understood in this sense, the new translation would accomplish this pastoral purpose. ●

At our gathering, we will reaffirm our commitment to finding peace and justice in our lives, or families and our communities as we embrace the non-violence of the Cross. In the sanctuary during Mass, there will be a statue of the Blessed Mother as Our Lady Queen of Peace and you can leave your intentions for peace. Refreshments will be served after the Mass in the church hall. For more info. you can email Donnagabriel6@gmail.com

SUMMER ATTIRE FOR MASS

While the Catholic Church does not have a strict dress code, appropriate attire for Mass is generally considered to be modest and respectful, reflecting the sacred nature of the event. It is a matter of reverence for God and consideration for fellow worshippers. A good rule of thumb is to dress a step up from your everyday casual wear. Thank you!

Feast of St. Mary Magdalene – July 22 – On June 10, 2016, the liturgical celebration honoring St. Mary Magdalene was raised from a memorial to a feast, commemorating the "Apostle to the Apostles" with a liturgical feast, the same celebration as most of the apostles, except for Peter and Paul. Christ has a special consideration and mercy for this woman, who shows her love for Him, looking for Him in the garden with anguish and suffering
