In the latest issue of the Polish Review, we read: quote - Swit reports that the Germans arrested in Warsaw all the priests and missionaries belonging to the Salesian order. End of quote.

Did you know that Cardinal Hlond, Primate of Poland, who was only recently seized and arrested by the Germans, is himself a member of the Salesian Order?

3 You've heard of the Polish Hop. Well, here is a number by that name, for all our friends + business in Long Aker part of the White Eagle Hall etc

The Youth of Immaculate Conception Parish, under the direction of Immaculate Conception Catechetical Class will conduct a Card Party at the White Eagle Hall, Thursday evening, March the 16th. Coming? That's fine.

2 And now ALL OUT POLKA for the speedy recovery of Mrs. Wm. Szalak Sapp. +

Another report carried by the Polish Review: quote - Swit reveals that on the night of Oct. 17th and 18th, 150 Poles were killed in gas chambers in Warsaw. End of quote. I mention this, lest we think that war atrocities are confined ~~to~~ only to the Pacific area. Birds of a feather flock together.

Catholic Novena - Mary, Our Lady, ...

Last week I ^{intended} began to say but did not have time (to finish). The I.C. Parish conducts a NOVENA to OUR LADY OF VICTORY every Thursday evening at 7.30 for the safety and speedy return of all our boys and girls in the service.

For the first 15 minutes, appropriate prayers are recited by the congregation in Polish. Then the congregation recites different prayers in English for 15 minutes. Novena booklets are supplied both in Polish and in English.

If you have some one near and dear to you in the service - whether you are a Catholic or not - and have nothing important to do, why not stop at the I.C. Church, Thursday evenings at 7.30 to make a novena for him or her or them in the service.
