Dear Padre

September 6, 2026

I had not been to confession for decades until recently, and I've probably committed mortal sins I can't remember. I want God's forgiveness, but I'm unsure how to get it at this time.

You ask if God has forgiven you for sins that you may have committed in the past but that you don't remember now. You say you have been to confession recently.

A mortal sin has three criteria: it is seriously wrong; the person knows it is seriously wrong; and the person is free to commit the sin or not. In the case you are describing, you don't even remember what the mortal sin might have been, or even if there was one. So, no, you don't have to confess something you don't remember. Also, you have already gone to confession recently, and you sound truly repentant for your past sins. You do not indicate that you were deliberately trying to hide any sins from the priest. So, you have already been forgiven, not only for the sins you remembered but also for those you don't remember. That is why usually we will say something like "for these sins and for those I may have forgotten" when we go to confession.

The bottom line is that confession is for you to experience God's mercy. It is not to test how good your memory is. Be at peace. God loves you and particularly wants you to experience the peace that comes from his forgiveness. ●

We dive deep into the catalog of the era's ultimate crooner with several timeless classics from Frank Sinatra & deliver the ultimate pop-vocal drama with multiple show-stopping anthems from Barry Manilow. Balancing these titans is the soulful piano poetry of Billy Joel and the breathtaking elegance of one of the era's leading ladies, Barbra Streisand. It is more than a tribute show-it is a heart-pounding, nostalgic live revival of the greatest melodies ever written. Cost is $50 per person, which includes brunch and the show. Paid reservations can be mailed to Immaculate Conception Church, 467 Delaware Ave., Kingston or put in the offertory baskets.
