My friend is doing a Bible study, and part of the program is something called lectio divina. Is that a Catholic practice?

This method of listening to Scripture has the Church's approval. In fact, Catholic bishops have recommended lectio divina as an easy way for Catholics to become more familiar with the Bible. The practice of lectio divina is quite simple:

First, ask the Holy Spirit to help you listen. Then slowly read a short Scripture passage aloud. Listen for a word or phrase that strikes you. Next, think about why this word or phrase is so striking at this moment. Does the word or phrase touch your life right now? Then, ask God's help in making an important choice, or ask what the word or phrase that struck you in the first step means in your life. Finally, close your eyes, let go of all thoughts, and remain silent before God.

These parts have a logical progression, but it's not a hard-and-fast method. People who have been doing lectio divina for a long time sometimes move back and forth between parts. If you practice lectio divina regularly, over time your understanding of God's word will deepen.

WALKING WITH MOMS IN NEED

Jesus calls us to accompany mothers in need every point along the journey, even when they have made the tragic choice of abortion. About 1 in 4 women in the United States, including many here in our parish, will experience this injustice during her lifetime. No one has to suffer the grief and pain alone. Jesus offers healing and peace through His Divine Mercy. How can our parish be an instrument of mercy and reconciliation for those who may believe they are unforgiveable? To learn more visit bit.ly.walkingwithmoms or contact sr.virginia.joy@archny.org

PRAYERS FOR THE SICK AND HOMEBOUND

EASTER MESSAGE FROM FATHER MIREK

We have all experienced an unprecedented journey in our present time. Although we have faced difficult times, both personally and professionally, our hope is out of the darkness, our strength has grown through prayer, stronger family ties and deeper spiritual growth. As the believers, we are expecting something bigger after this time of turmoil when our love, our faith and our hope will be increased and the good can be continued forth and multiplied.

We know very well at the end, the victory is Jesus Christ, who rose from the dead.

I would like to thank all my parishioners of Immaculate Conception who have been so supportive of the church and myself during this time. On behalf of myself, Father John, Father Yaya and the Parish Council, we wish you a blessed and Holy Easter. As we celebrate the Resurrection today, please let us all rejoice,

Alleluia! Christ is Risen!

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Today is Divine Mercy Sunday. At 2:30 PM we will have Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and at 3 PM recite the Divine Mercy Chaplet followed by procession to the Chapel with the Blessed Sacrament.

DIVINE MERCY CHAPEL

The Divine Mercy Perpetual Adoration Chapel of Ulster County is open and welcoming new adorers to help worship, accompany and adore Jesus. Please commit to a weekly hour and become a registered adorer to receive a key fob. You may obtain more information by visiting immaculateconceptionkingston.com and clicking on the Adoration Chapel link; emailing adorationchapelnewyork@gmail.com; or by calling Fr. Mirek at 845-331-0846. Thank you and God Bless!

ANNUAL MAY CROWNING

Our annual May Crowning Ceremony will take place during the First Holy Communion Mass next Sunday, May 1st at 11 AM.
